

Know today
Live better tomorrow

2015 CLS confirmed as Major LRIT ASP

Following a call for tender, CLS is pleased to announce that EMSA has renewed its trust in CLS for the provision of LRIT ASP services.

benefit of the European Member States » said Gaetan Fabritius, Head of Maritime Surveillance Department, CLS France.

« With almost 30 years experience in maritime geointelligence, we view this new contract as a strong recognition of the quality of our maritime surveillance services.

We are very pleased with this award, proud to serve EMSA and the biggest LRIT Data Center worldwide and will continue to cooperate with EMSA to constantly improve our solutions for the

CLS is a subsidiary of CNES, IFREMER and the investment company ARDIAN. It has been operating satellite systems and providing high value-added products and services since 1986

<http://maritime-intelligence.cls.fr>

KEY FIGURES

More than 12 000 000

ship positions processed
every day by CLS

23

Is the number of CLS
subsidiaries and
offices in the world

550

Is the number of CLS
employees in the world

4

Business sectors

- Sustainable management of marine resources
- Environmental surveillance
- Maritime surveillance
- Energy offshore

4

Jobs

- Positioning
- Data collection
- Observation and surveillance of the ocean
- Geolocation of land vehicle

CLS tracks every day the entire worldwide maritime fleet.

